

Racing Lines

The new Jonathan Rea replica is a complete departure from his previous design, offering a stylistic combination of lines and colors that can appeal to more than just Jonathan Rea fans.

If you like bright, clean graphics without too much rider personality mixed in, the new Rea is just right for you. Great colors to compliment any bike or gear, that also stand alone when switching between bikes or wearing different gear. Available on the Corsair-V, originally designed for the track, is very happy to ride with you down the city streets or cross country roads. Just be sure the Corsair-V is right for you and of course make sure it fits your head shape.

Key Corsair-V Benefits:

- Massive DF-10 upper ventilation ducts for incredible airflow.
- Adjustable air-wing, accommodates almost any riding speed, style or position.
- FCS cheek pad design offers stability for spirited riding, and incredible comfort for all-day long distance riding.
- Peel-Away cheek and temple pads allow for custom micro-fitting to your head shape.
- Dry-Cool(r) interior material helps draw heat and sweat away from you and into the airflow.
