

HISTORIC COLLABORATION

The latest offering of the famed Corsair-V Isle Of Man commemorative replica is about to hit the US market.

As with the previous IOM designs, the 2013 will be an extremely limited production run coming to the North American Market. Once they're here, they're gone for good, so if you want one you better act fast.

The new IOM 2013 Replica adorns the Corsair-V model, a helmet that has set the standard by which many compare all helmets.
