

CORSAIR-V Nicky GP

>> CORSAIR-V Nicky GP Limited

What can we say? Nicky really wanted something unique for the 2012 Moto GP events in the US - and he got it. The vintage openface helmet look, with Nicky's actual profile, captured immediate and intense attention when it first appeared at Laguna, and did not lose any steam when he wore it again at Indy. Normally, for something so unique, a replica is not in the cards. However, interest and demand for this design was so great that Arai decided to make a limited edition for the early 2013 model year. Production has been limited to only two months, with the first shipment due to arrive in the US in February 2013, so if you want one don't hesitate, as they will not be around for long.
