

CORSAIR-V HASLAM WSBK 2

>> CORSAIR-V HASLAM WSBK 2

An instantly recognizable design, with asymmetrical colors and an in-your-face "H" on either side, this may just be what the rider who wants to be recognized from a mile away needs. While last year's graphic was very attractive and well received around the world, the new layout is a significant departure from the traditional styling of the previous paint scheme. The basic configuration is from a helmet that Leon (Haslam) wore a few years ago and the bright red and blue colors are from Leon's 2012 ride, which are accented with a checkered flag center stripe that has a bold look that will give anyone wearing it the "look at me" reaction they have been looking for. The first shipments will be arriving in the US in early November 2012. Contact your local dealer to find out more: araiamericas.com
